Mrs. Annis Screamed to Husband as Hains Shot Final

WEATHER-Fair to-night and Tuesday.

"Circulation Books Open to Ali."

NEW YORK, MONDAY, DECEMBER 21, 1908.

"Circulation Books Open to All."

PRICE ONE CENT.

Talk of Interested Persons Must Not Be Taken as Final, INSANITY IS CLAIMED: He Tells Congressmen.

BIG PROFITS PROVED.

Trust President Like the Monkey After the Chestnuts-Some Protection Facts.

reached a point where it does not need negle before the Committee on Ways signed to assist it in the preparation Coroner. of a new tariff bill which will come up for consideration at the extra session home in Plainfield, N. J., when she was

Mr. Carnegie had primed himself for the ordeal of the rigid questioning which left the hospital from the moment of ne was to undergo, and he kept the committee and audience in constant suspense and shock have had an alarm-He would not deal in figures, claiming that the more that figures were used the more the subject would become "be genius and Mr. Gary as a most lovable vas utterly opposed to an income tax, His people declare that he was support of the statements that he made sistently that the facts show that the in the John street police station shortly interesting that has appeared before the Praises Schwab: Hits Gary. Praising the genius of Charles M. He and bonanza. Schwab, Mr. Carnegie suggested that Congress should extend a vote of thanks to Mr. Schwap for his work in improving the methods of steelmaking in this country. Carnegie, in speaking of Mr. Schwab, Chairman Payne. Speaking of the testimony of Judge ambition.

Will Not Hurt Wages.

on the testimony of interested parties. guidance a company was formed to ex-Judge Gary said that the United States ploit the massage machine. Lumsden room. smaller steel manufacturers could not considerable stock among his friends in survive the lowered duties. That is Plainfield, where he was a member of like one of Aesop's fables. Judge Gary is like the monkey who desired the worker and high in Masonic circles.

splendid shape for the questions asked by Representatives Dalzell and Payne. and demanded paym At one point Mr. Payne leaned over

"I wish the chairman would tell me what he said to Mr. Dalzell. I think I ought to know," Mr. Carnegie protested. There was a roar of laughter throughout the room, but Mr. Payne made no state of his mannes warranted the outreply. Leaning over with his hand to his ear and his head cocked to one side, Mr. Payne in white-ring to Mr. Dal- or her mater, in Spartaneour, S.

Figures Show Big Profits. The former steel magnate said nat Judge Gary had hand an arman statement showing that the United States Steel Corporation had made a profit of $158.000,000, which, he said, equalled a profit of $15.50 a ton on all steel products.

Inventor, Who Shot Financier in Broad Street Office, Is Charged With Murder.

Relatives of Slaver Declare He Was Crazed by Losses Through Fraud.

yesterday, and Suydam's vitality alone in Centre Street Court yesterday by Magistrate Finn to await the result of Suydam's injuries, was rearraigned to-day, charged with homicide. He was then committed to the custody of the Suydam's wife, who hurried fro notified of the shooting, was at his bed-side when he died. In fact, she had not her arrival. She is an invalid, and the ing effect upon her health

Two Bullets Caused Death.

The two bullets that caused the death tered his left breast below the heart, passing entirely through the body. The other passed through the right lung and lodged in the back.

Considerable matter of public man, but a very shrewd one. He ex- regarding Wall street methods of finnot be reduced if the tariff was lowered Lumsden's trial. He has influential rel-stone, that such a tax produced a na- street, who defrauded him out of an in-The Laird of Skibo Castle testified in temperament of an inventor, they say.

committee, interspersing his testimony vibrating massage machine. He perwith humorous and epigrammatic re- feeted it in Birmingham, Ala., where he was the manager of a theatre, and came to New York to launch it on the market.

Vanted to Put Wife in Opera. His wife, Caroline Miller, of Charlesthe Brick Presbyterian Church, has a "I never met his equal," said Mr. magnificent voice and had gained much renown through the South as a concert to his client. "and when we were partners we were a in opera, and Lumsden, when he brought turns would enable her to gratify that Gary before the committee, Mr. Carne- He met Suydam, one of the best "You should not place any real value erators, last April. Under Suydam's the Common Council, a prominent church chestauts, but wanted the cat to pull as the inventor had anticipated. The massage machine did not pan out rang with peals of laughter at the quips president. Lumsden did not think he Claimed He Was Defrauded. money had been expended in forwarding the interests of the company, but in the mean time Lumsden's money in instation of the attitude assumed by ran out. He sent his wife to the non-e physician to Dr. William T. Dull, made the statement this morning that Dr sould passed a fairly controllable night, and that there is no material change in his condition. Dr. Wynkoep is illimedif-ill with a cold and confined to his bed, but receives frequent reports of Dr. Bull's condition from Dr. Joseph I. Blake.

YOU MOVE OR YOU'LL GET THE SAME," CRIED, WITH PIGTOL AT MRS. ANNIG'S BACK

"Then I Ran Up the Gangway," Says the Widow of Capt. Hains's Victim Dramatically, "and Could Still Feel the Pistol."

SAW HAINS CALL BROTHER AS VICTIM'S BOAT CAME IN

'I Was There and I Saw It-I Saw His Legs Give Way—the Firing Was Going On— He Fell" - Her Story of Husband's Death.

The most dramatic moment in the trial of Thornton Hains for complicity in the murder of William E. Annis by Capt. Peter Hains came at the old court-house at Flushing this afternoon when the prosecution called to the stand Mrs. Helene E. Annis, widow of the victim, to tell how her husband was shot to death at the Bayside Yacht Club on the afternoon of Aug. 15 last.

Dressed just as she was the other day when she appeared as a witness in her black gown, big black hat and long veil, the splendid looking woman entered. She was white as chalk, but cold and steady as ice. She gave her answers with a slight tremor in her voice.

If Thornton Hains is convicted he may thank Mrs. Helene E. believing, as he said, with Mr. Glad- insane by Suydam and others in Wall Annis for most of it. Except for the constant little qualm in her voice vention. Lumsden has the emotional she did not show what she must have felt, until just before the finish. "Some inventors, after they are Then her deep, strong throat notes shook until they threatened to break. in his magazine article declaring per- robbed, commit suicide," said Lumsden But she did not weep nor did her expression change. It was calmsteel industry needs no protection. As after he was arrested on Saturday. "I deadly calm—and she told her story with a deadly emphasis.

a witness Mr. Carnegie proved the most am not that kind."

Lumsden's invention was an electric PRISONER SHRINKS UNDER ACCUSATIONS.

It was plain to any one that the widow knew the weight of the words and that she meant them to carry all the meaning and all the force her black widow's garb with gold. The jurors stood up, stretching their then like mad. I was almost insane. I story was ended—as dramatic a her black widow's garb with gold. The jurors stood up, stretching their then like mad. I was almost insane. I story as ever a court-room audience had He and all his friends believed he had a that was possible. At nearly every minute of her testimony, in every limbs. They hadn't moved while she testified. break between question and answer McIntyre had been on his feet, fightton, a sister of Reid Miller, soloist in like a man swimming against a strong current, with a flood of interruptions and objections, striving to keep out what was most damaging

The big, fine-looking woman would shake her head under its huge "That is very apparent," remarked her and his invention to New York, firmly believed that his financial re- black hat, as if impatient to go on, but, falling instinctively into the any one?"

"At the any one?"
"Whom mode of a practised witness, she invariably waited until he was done and well, and some others whom I do not and Peter Hains had followed me known and most popular of the curb op- had been overruled—he was overruled every time but once—before going on with her vibrant, musical voice, carrying to every part of the court-

tion in the tariff on steel, but that the his money in the concern. Suydam sold HELD COURT BREATHLESS BY HER STORY. Jenkins Hains paled to a piecrust yellow as he listened. His head!

was in his hands, his long fingers playing uneasily against his cheek man sitting in the cab. I was on the of the runway talking to some of the bones, over which the skin had tautened until the points stood out tinetty. I noticed that as we neared on the left hand side." The crowded hearing room frequently the summer the company was reorgan- through the flesh prominently. His lips curled away from his teeth in a passed and fell in behind us. mechanical grin and his forehead furrowed into deep, corded wrinkles. for money advanced amounting to $650 Not a sound had come from the crowd, except its deep, hard breathing, The Justice, all sympathy and understanding, had been constantly on and whispered to Mr. Dalzell, who sat Jacobs and Suydam claimed that the the alert, now checking Mrs. Annis when she sought to inject what she thought instead of what she saw into the testimony, now waving down stage down the shore read?" "It was ing a race." Lumsden declared they had diverted it the excited McIntyre, now helping the District-Attorney with the form very close." to their own uses. Suydam, however, of his questions.

As Mrs. Annis neared the point where she described the tragedy itself. Thornton Hains seemed to be trying to stare her out of her senses. His ton Hains." for once or twice she shook her eyes and threw back her head.

The more bigures given by the ender the control by Wall street and the country out will be belonged by Wall street and the country out will be belonged by Wall street and point was substituted by Wall street and point was substituted by Wall street and point in his testimony.

The more bigures given by the rested parties, Legal and the country of the more bigures given by the ender the country of the more bigures given by the rested parties. Legal and the country one absolutely new facts and every one and in the country of the more bigures given by the restrict parties. Legal and the country of the stage? The close as they could drive to us. When the stage stopped I was about ffleen fee: away tell what bounded that the cast stepped just beautiful at the first stage. There was servible, gleg the was done of the country of the more depend at the first stage? There was servible, gleg the was done of the country of the stage? The close as they could drive to us. When the stage stopped I was about ffleen fee: away tell what bounded the float and drive to us. When the stage stopped I was about ffleen fee: away tell what become of the country of the count Dr. Gerardus H. Wynkoop, attending slow deliberate earnestness that made the nerves of her hearers tingle in saw the defendant and Capt. Hains of the float and warded off the boat. physician to Dr. William T. Buil, made response like tightened fiddle strings. response like tightened fiddle strings.

HAINS TRANSFIXED DURING RECITAL.

When Darrin finally said he was through, the crowd exhaled its breath in a big rumbling sigh-a sigh of satisfaction one might say-for this crowd son, the negro, was grawing near them = of Flushing town-folk had heard the biggest story that has come from a witness stand since Evelyn Nesbit Thaw's days in court as a witness. There was a little pause, a little bustle of people shifting about in their

Dramatic Story of the Murder

Mrs. Annis on the Sland Telling lying loosely in her lap waiting. A clerk brought her water, but she waved him away. Jenkins Hains didn't move any more than if he had been carved, draw it. His gaze, unwinking as the, of a rattler, was fixed on her face. Under this Slub on Aug. 15?" "Yes, I went by ber." Follows. Her to Float.

my two little boys."

"At the Bayside station did you meet nis went on:

"You went over from the station to Moin

Bell's house a private cab passed us.
I saw Capt. Peter Hains and another way. Thornton Hains stood at the top five months?" "I know the same of the s man sitting in the cab. I was on the of the runway talking to some of the members as they came down. He was Hundred and Thirty-ninth street—No. Hundred and Thirty-ninth street—No. the shooting began?" "I don't know."

"Where are you niving how." the shooting began?" "I don't know."

"Ul West— in Manhattan. I lived at No. "Did they run away?" I don't know." the shore road the cab drew up till we the shore road the cab drew up till we "Who talked with him?" "Mr. Birch- 47 Claremont avenue on Aug. 15."

him I became very much frightened." between them."

Frightened at Sight of Him.

Hains: "I didn't know him then. I dock?" "It was fully twenty minutes."

"How close did the cab stay behind "No. You could not see any faces."
the stage?" "As close as they could "As the boat reached the float and talking to a negro waiter. I didn't I saw him go to the how and put his rival?

know what was said. As I went I the hand on it." room I heard Thornton Hains use the "What did either of the Hainses dowords 'Rickerts-r'indlay.' But I was so did you notice?" excited that I couldn't remember. Elli- "Yes, I noticed. As Mr. Birchfield went to the dock?" "Who did you see there?" "I can't at all nours. "."

"Did you know Capt. Peter Hains say very well, because I was looking prior to Aug. 15?" began Darr'n. "I for my husband. Mrs. Rockwell was there and Mrs. Harway and Mr. An-"Did you go to the Bayside Yacht drews and his son are some I remem-

"Who was with you?" "My children After calling of the names of some o

ny one?" "I did."
"Whom did you meet?" "Mr. Rock- when I noticed that Thornton Hains McIntyre objected to the phraseology his work cut out for him. the club in the stage?" "I did." of this, but was overruled. The Judge of the way over did a cab or surrey asked the witness for her meaning.

field is the only one I remember. I "Did Capt. Peter Hains look toward didn't hear what was said."

"How far apart were the brothers?" train."

Where was your husband when you first reached the end of the dock?" "How close did the cab follow the the middle of the bay in his boat, sail. tay, at all. I only know he left the capt. Italia, you say?" "Yes." house early. He got to Bayside about "You watched him carefully."

subsequently found cut he was Thornsubsequently found cut he was Thornton Hains."

"How close did the cab stay behind "No. You could not see any faces."

"How close did the cab stay behind "No. You could not see any faces."

"How close did the cab stay behind "No. You could not see any faces."

"How close did the cab stay behind "No. You could not see any faces."

"How close did the cab stay behind "No. You could not see any faces."

"How close did the cab stay behind "No. You could not see any faces."

Pine New Turkish Baths "What did you do? "I immediately now open in the new Pullizer Emiding Only first-class downtown establishment. Modern in every detail. Electric and Turkish baths

"Hains Went to Edge of the Float With the Captain and Stood Facing the People With His Revolver."

"KEEP OFF OR I'LL KILL YOU." HAINS'S THREAT TO ROBERTS.

"Peked His Revolver in My Face and I Stood Still While Captain Continued to Fire at Annis," Club Member Testifies.

ran down the gangplank Thornton put his revolver in my back-right to ight bokind him came Peter Hains."

ng about three or four feet from Capt. water was crouched down with his back to "and I saw it. I saw his legs give

"When did you come down the run- didn't know anything more" vay?" "Between the first and second made one or two steps toward me and proportioned, with big, strong features, pointed his revolver at me. I turned had made a magnificent witness against Birchfield. I saw him speak to others, but I noticed Mr. Birchfield most."

Hains turned and beckened to his my back. I stopped and I looked back brother and made some exclamation, and the revolver was fixed at my back. Then Thornton Meins went down the Me said, You move or you'll get the gangplank right behind Zirchfield and same thing!' I stood for another second, and then I ran up the gangway. I could feel the revolver at my back it was, took my arm and led me to the

"I was there," she went on slowly, way under him-the firing was going on-he fell-his logs gave way and he What was the position of Peter fell into the water. I saw him fall lains's right hand?" "He was holding into the water. Then Mr. Andrews revolver in it, aiming it. I saw him took me away-took me to the clubhouse, and after that for a while I ay?" "Between the first and second "You may cross-examine," said Mr. Darrin, sitting down. vas trying to go to my husband."

"As I ran down Thornton Hains black, nearly six feet tall and perfectly"

Mrs. Annis on Cross-Examination Foils Efforts to Break Her Down

Mr. McIntyre stopped his buildog "Were there other ladies there?" manner for this witness. He went at "They came down a minute after I arher deftly and gently. He knew he had rived."

"How long did you know this defend- Mrs. Nosbitt, Mrs. Hill and Mrs. Anant before Aug. 15?" he began. "I drews."

pass the coach?" "Yes."

"Did you notice it particularly?"
"Yes; when we were near Mr. Brinton
Bell's house a private cab passed us.

"I mean that they came to the dock directly behind me," said Mrs. Annis
"Capt. Hains stood by the little gaso-"How long had you known Capt.
"You ladies were all together on the Hains?" "I knew Capt. Hains four or dock?"

Disturbed All the Time. "Where are you living now?" "One "Where did the other ladies go when

"What time did your husband go to brothers talk to at the dock?" "I canthe clubhouse?" "He went on the 8.05 not recall which ones.

"Did he tell you he was going on that rain?" "I did not talk to him on that "Yes," "Yes," 4 "How long were they talking to Mr. Birchfieli?" "I cannot say."

"In 'rain?" "I did not talk to him on that "Your attention was directed toward age down the shore read?" "It was ing a race."

"Could you see his face?" "No."

"Who was the man with Capt.

"How long before he approached the "You was fully twenty minutes."

"You say you were excited when you "You paid no attention to him?" "No."

"You paid no attention to him?" "No."

"You went to the duck on your ar- Did you mention your worry to any of the ladles? "You did not look behind you?" "No." I did not "You merely assume then that the "Did you see the face of your hus-followed you down to the band as his boat lay at the dock?" ock?" "They were at the dock almost did not. The sail vision after his boat turned to come in. Did you see the defendant speak to Before the boat turned his face was too "While Thornton Hains was talking to

Mr. Birchffield, did you hear him ony